The University of Cincinnati Boxing Club is a student run club sport and is open to all UC students. The team was started in 2011 by UC students who had previously competed on CFB's High School Boxing Team. CFB is located less than 2 miles from the University of Cincinnati, making it easy for students to get to the gym.

The college boxing season runs primarily from September through March. During the season, team members are able to compete in intramural shows as well as National Collegiate Boxing Association (NCBA) and United States Intercollegiate Boxing Association (USIBA) events and tournaments. The UC Boxing Club is also open to students who do not wish to compete but just want to learn the sport of boxing and train with the team. If you attend another local university but wish to train with the UC Boxing Club, we do accept members on a case-by-case basis.
